

The Guide

Support available for disabled students at University

Who is this for?

The Guide is for anyone considering applying to higher education who has a disability, including learning differences, neurodivergence, mental health and long-term health conditions. This also includes those who have previously received support under the term SEND at school or college.

Scan or click the QR code to view The Guide